

Paid Time Off (PTO), Holiday, and Leave Policy

Overview

Aspirean Wealth, LLC (“Company”) believes that time away from work is important to sustain well-being, sound judgment, and long-term performance. This Paid Time Off (“PTO”), Holiday, and Leave Policy is intended to comply with all applicable wage and hour laws, including California law, and is incorporated by reference into the Company’s Employment Agreement.

This policy does not create a contract of employment, does not guarantee continued employment, and does not alter the at-will nature of employment.

Nature of PTO Benefit

Paid Time Off is provided as a discretionary employee benefit designed to promote flexibility, rest, and well-being. PTO is not intended to be, and shall not be construed as, a guaranteed or mandatory component of compensation. Except for accrued PTO treated as wages as required by applicable law, the availability, structure, and continuation of PTO are subject to Company policy and business needs.

Paid Time Off (PTO) Annual PTO Accrual

All full-time employees begin accruing PTO after 90 days of employment. Accrued PTO may be used after completion of the initial 120-day onboarding period.

PTO accrues based on continuous service as follows:

- 0–2 years: 10 days (80 hours) annually
- 3–4 years: 12 days annually
- 5–9 years: 14 days annually
- 10+ years: determined annually as part of the annual compensation review

Accrual, Carryover, and Cap

PTO accrues incrementally throughout the year and is not earned in advance. Employees may carry over up to two (2) unused PTO days into the following calendar year. PTO accrual will cease once an employee reaches the applicable annual accrual cap until PTO is used. Accrued PTO is treated as wages only to the extent required by applicable law.

Use of PTO

PTO may be used for vacation, personal matters, or illness. PTO requests should be submitted as far in advance as possible, with a minimum of three (3) months’ notice for planned or extended absences. All PTO usage is subject to manager approval to ensure adequate client service and team coverage.

Paid Time Off (PTO), Holiday, and Leave Policy

Paid Company Holidays

The Company observes the following eight (8) paid holidays annually:

- New Year's Day
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Day After Thanksgiving
- Christmas Eve or Day After Christmas (calendar-dependent)
- Christmas Day

Flex-Work Days

Employees are eligible for up to twelve (12) flex-work days per year. No more than two (2) flex-work days may be used in a single month. Flex-work days allow schedule adjustments or remote work in lieu of a full PTO day and do not accrue, carry over, convert to wages, or vest. Flex-work days require advance notice and approval.

Unpaid Leave and Extended Absences

Requests for unpaid leave or extended absences beyond available PTO must be submitted in advance and approved in writing by management. Approval is based on business needs and legal requirements.

Exempt Employee Salary Compliance

For exempt employees, unpaid leave or salary deductions will only be applied in full-day increments and only where permitted by applicable wage and hour laws. No deductions will be made that would jeopardize an employee's exempt status.

PTO Upon Separation of Employment

Upon separation of employment for any reason, employees will be paid for all accrued and unused PTO in accordance with applicable law. No PTO will accrue after the employee's final day of active employment. PTO does not vest beyond accrued balances, and no retroactive forfeiture of accrued PTO is permitted.

Policy Administration and Amendments

The Company reserves the right to interpret, modify, or amend this policy prospectively at any time, subject to applicable law. Any changes will not retroactively reduce accrued PTO balances.